How did an author’s work change your view of the world or yourself?

How to Enter

READ

Select a fiction or nonfiction book, a poem or play you have read and about which you have strong feelings. (Sorry, no song lyrics!) It might be a book that helped you through a difficult time or it might be a book that simply touched your heart or inspired you.

REFLECT

Think before you write. How did this author’s work change you or your view of the world? How do you know it did? How and why are you different now than you were before you read this work?

Persuade

Write a personal letter to the author, stating how reading his or her work changed you. Be personal but also persuasive! Support your ideas with specific details, including details from the work itself. This is not a fan letter but rather a reflection on how an author influenced you.

WRITE

Type your entry in letter format – do not send handwritten letters. Your name and complete return address (either school or home) must appear in the upper right corner of the first page of the letter.

SEND

Mail your letter with the required entry coupon by the deadline date.
For updates on the program, please refer to the contest website, read.gov/letters.

Deadlines

Entries will be accepted beginning November 2, 2016

Entries must be postmarked by the following dates

ASSESSMENT. All entries will be judged on the following criteria:

Round 1

Audience. Is the essay in letter format and does it address the author of the work? Entries that are not in letter format and are written about the author, rather than to the author, will be eliminated.

Purpose. Does the essay address the contest theme of how an author’s work changed the reader’s view of self or the world? Is personal reflection evident in the letter? Entries that are book summaries or fan letters will be eliminated.

Letters that meet these criteria advance to Round 2.

Round 2

Grammar. Is the essay written in a clear and organized way with specific details to support the essay’s main ideas? Single paragraph letters with significant grammatical errors will be eliminated.

Originality. Does the essay express ideas creatively, communicating a unique or powerful point of view? Letters that are formulaic without evidence of a writer’s voice will be eliminated.

Letters that meet these criteria advance to state level judging.

Judges selected by affiliate Centers for the Book choose the top letters in each competition level for their state and coordinate recognition ceremonies and awards. The first-place state-level winners advance to the national level judging.

The Center for the Book in the Library of Congress selects a panel of judges to award National Winners and National Honor Winners.

Each state recognizes and awards prizes to winning participants.

The Library of Congress will announce all National and National Honor Winners and awards and will list all state-level winners on its website.

National Winners in each competition level will receive a $1,000 cash award

National Honor Winners in each competition level will receive a $200 cash award

Check read.gov/letters for details on state awards and ceremonies.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR LETTERS AND ENTRY COUPON

Entry Coupon. Each letter must be accompanied by an entry coupon. Staple the coupon to the last page of the letter. Affiliate Centers for the Book will contact State Winners using this information, so be sure entry coupons are complete and legible! Letters without a coupon will be eliminated.

Class Set of Letters. Teachers must submit their name and contact information with a list of the names of each student submitting a letter. This list does not take the place of entry coupons.

Each student’s letter must have its own entry coupon. Mail class sets in a flat envelope - 8x10 or larger.

Ownership. All letters become the property of the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress. Please keep a copy of your entries, as no letters will be returned.

Mailing Address. Indicate the competition level — 1, 2 or 3 — on the envelope. Include a complete return address on your mailing envelope. Mail to:
